The image shows a browser window with a single tab titled "NIA LearningServer". The address bar displays a secure connection to "https://e-learning.niapune.org.in/(S(ienr...))". A red box highlights the "Secure" indicator in the address bar, with a red arrow pointing to the text "Click here" on the left. Below the address bar, a security information panel is open, showing a "Secure connection" status with a lock icon. The panel lists various permissions: JavaScript (Allow), Flash (Allow), Popups (Allow), and MIDI devices full control (Allow). It also shows a valid certificate and no cookies in use. At the bottom of the panel, the "Site settings" link is highlighted with a red box, and a red arrow points to the text "Click site settings" on the right.
